

DAWY EXAMINER

J. W. DOWNS, Editor and Proprietor.

Local Intelligence.

H. F. Womble,
Of Berquille bought goods yesterday.

N. Fields,
Of Gassville, bought goods on order yesterday, in this city.

Several Bell County
Farmers were in town yesterday. They all seem pleased with our markets.

Crowded
The square was crowded with busy people from early morn to dewy eve yesterday.

Four hundred bales of Cotton and two car loads of hides were shipped markward yesterday.

Mr. E. Ladlow
The leading medice of this city, will leave in a few days for New York. Look out ladies, she styles are good this season.

Crowds of Fair
Visitors came to see the "Big Turnip" yesterday. It will remain but a few days longer.

We were glad
To welcome to our office Mr. Damon, the energetic and capable agent of that live newspaper, the St. Louis Globe, which, bearing the politics, is a live very much.

Austin Avenue
Was at one time yesterday crowded for a half mile with cotton wagons, as thick as they could stand. There were in the crowd thirty-five wagons from Bell county alone.

We are glad
To be able to report Col. Level as rapidly convalescing. His host of friends will be glad to learn that he will be able in a few days to attend to his usual business.

The Central
Is at last equal to all emergencies in the way of getting off freight. Cotton will now go forward promptly, and the vexatious delays of the past few months will be unknown in the future.

Mr. Mosner
Left his morning on a trip to see his mamma. This is a good boy, and like all other good boys, must see his old mother once a while in a while. A safe journey and a speedy return, my son.

The South Goods
Bright sunny weather yesterday, brought immense crowds to town to see and be seen, to sell and to buy. Our merchants on Austin avenue, on the square, and on Bridge street, all drive a thriving trade.

Among the money
Live and enterprising merchants in Waco, Dr. J. L. Cornish ranks decidedly very high. His business is increasing steadily in both the drug and grocery lines. We are always glad to see these evidences of success among our commercial men. We can most cordially endorse the Doctor as an honest, faithful and progressive merchant.

J. Hawk Sparks
Of Towhee, called to see us yesterday. He says that lovely little village is rapidly improving. They have an elegant new Baptist church nearly complete. Mr. Laster an old citizen of Waco, has lately completed a fine store house in that place. Parson Looker is the pastor of their flourishing free school, and is giving very general satisfaction.

That Waco
Proposes to build and donate to the county a new courthouse, providing the county will consent to the removal of the county seat to that side of the river. They will bind themselves in a bond to any extent, that the house will cost better than the old one, by at least a thousand per cent. If this isn't an enticing bid we don't know what to call it. If it was our "pat" we would say yes; by all means, move it to a-half, or anywhere else so that the fearful odors it dispenses could not endanger the public health.

We are
In receipt of a note from Messrs. Gary & Oliphant of Galveston. They will in the future confine themselves to the cotton foreign business exclusively. Having found out their grocery establishment. This firm is well and favorably known throughout the State. Our friends consigning cotton to them are assured that their best interests will be properly cared for.

Prod. & Almonds
Trade increases with each day, and why shouldn't it? He deals in nothing but the purest and best liquors, wines, ales, beer and cigars. If you want a quiet place to drop in at, and rest and enjoy a mug of beer, a glass of wine and good cigars. There is no other place in the city where you will be more at home, or more kindly cared for. Prod. is a gentleman, and understands his business.

We invite
Particular attention to the notice headed "Wanted," in today's paper. The agent, Mr. T. A. Washington, is sole agent for the sale in this State of Gen. J. E. Johnston's new book. It is devoted to an immense sale, and those wishing agencies should at once put themselves in communication with Mr. Washington at Galveston.

Notice
There will be a meeting of the citizens of this city on Wednesday, at Richey's Hall at 7 p. m., to take into consideration the purchase of the Waco Cotton Mills. This is an important step to the people of this city, and we trust everybody will come and give it aid.

Still for rent
Three hundred acres of good Brazos cotton land, with splendid tenant houses. Apply on my farm, four miles below Waco. DAWY

Lucky Creature.
When Mr. Keith, of Massachusetts, drew the $100,000 prize in the last Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, everybody exclaimed, "lucky creature!" but now the first prize in the next Concert is $200,000, with others of $100,000, $50,000, &c., what will be said of the fortunate holders of the fortunate tickets. There will be no postponement now, Gov. Bramlette distinctly announces, therefore all who want to be sure of chances must apply early for tickets.

Married,

LUCKY'S LINIMENT—LIVING WITH NICHOLS.
BLUE RIDGE, Falls County Texas, August 15, 1873.

Mr. S. M. Lackland:
DEAR SIR—I have been sorely afflicted with Rheumatism for several years, so much so that at times I have not been able to walk without the greatest pain for two and three months together. I have tried every remedy, and been attended on by several good physicians, but have never experienced any relief until I was induced to try "Lucky's Liniment." After using three bottles I find myself entirely well, and I cheerfully give this to the public, hoping that others may see this and profit by my experience, and speedily seek relief in this truly wonderful medicine.

J. W. ROBERTSON.
My postoffice is Brenham, Robertson county, Texas.

Dupot for the State, with J. M. Riviere,
Agent, Waco, Texas.

JACK PINCHER.
The auction man of the West, makes things lively on his side of the square, judging, as we do, from the amount of goods we are leaving his house, purchased at a mere song.

How Jack gets his goods is another thing, but we suspect him in some way connected with that class of merchants who get their goods in that mysterious way that enables them to sell for one half the price of the other merchants.

And but the fact that we have known Jack for 10 these many years, we might go a step further, and say he is—them. No, we won't say it; out we tell you what we will say: Long may he wave that's what.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.
Absolutely safe. Perfectly odorless. Always uniform. Illuminating qualities superior to gas. Burns in any lamp without danger of exploding or taking fire. Manufactured expressly to displace the use of volatile and dangerous oils. Its safety under every possible test, and its perfect burning qualities are proved by its continued use in over 300,000 families.

Millions of gallons have been sold and no accident—directly or indirectly—has ever occurred from burning, storing or handling it.

The immense yearly loss to life and property, resulting from the use of cheap and dangerous oils in the United States is appalling.

The Insurance Companies and Fire Commissioners throughout the country recommend ASTRAL as the best safeguard when lamps are used. Send for circular.

For sale at retail by the trade generally, and at wholesale by the proprietors, CHAS. PRATT & CO., 105 Fulton Street, New York.

REMOVAL.

A WELL MERITED COMPLIMENT.
A letter from the United States Commissioner at Vienna, announces that the Emperor of Austria has created Thaddeus Fairbanks, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., the inventor of the Fairbanks' scales, a Knight of the imperial Order of "Francis Joseph." This is a rare testimonial of the value of American inventive genius, but when the immense value of a reliable and standard weighing machine to the commerce of the entire civilized world is considered, it is one fully merited.

These scales are for sale at their depot, 53 Camp Street, New Orleans.

MULLER'S
Purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil.

Was awarded a Silver Medal at the Paris Exhibition 1871, heading twenty-seven competitors. Is prepared from selected Livers, and bottled at Lofoten Island, Norway.

Was awarded a Golden Medal at Bergen International Exhibition, 1865.

Is the purest, and for rapidity, clearness, and delicacy of taste and smell, is superior to any.

Is highly recommended by the Medical Societies of Norway and England.

Is more rapidly assimilated, and more easily digested, than any other Cod Liver Oil.

Was awarded the First Prize and the only Medal at the London International Exhibition, 1863.

Is recommended by high medical authorities in Europe and America.

Was awarded First Prize, the only one awarded, at Stockholm Great Exhibition, 1873.

Was awarded the only Prize at International Maritime Exhibition at Naples, 1871.
